

The State of Maryland
Executive Department

ORDER OF THE
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND

TEMPORARILY PROHIBITING EVICTIONS OF TENANTS SUFFERING
SUBSTANTIAL LOSS OF INCOME DUE TO COVID-19

- WHEREAS, A state of emergency and catastrophic health emergency was proclaimed on March 5, 2020, to control and prevent the spread of COVID-19 within the state, and the state of emergency and catastrophic health emergency still exists;
- WHEREAS, COVID-19, a respiratory disease that spreads easily from person to person and may result in serious illness or death, is a public health catastrophe and has been confirmed in several Maryland counties;
- WHEREAS, The spread of COVID-19 is likely to result in loss of work and loss of income for some residents of Maryland, which may impact their ability to pay for rental housing, and potentially result in their eviction;
- WHEREAS, To treat, prevent, or reduce the spread of COVID-19 caused by the transmission of the novel coronavirus, it may become medically necessary and reasonable to require individuals to remain in isolation or quarantine at their homes or to remain indoors;
- WHEREAS, To protect the public health, welfare, and safety, it is necessary to authorize the use of private property, provide temporary housing for individuals affected by the spread of COVID-19, and suspend the effect of certain states, rules, or regulations of agencies of the State or political subdivisions relating to real property and breach of leases;
- WHEREAS, To protect life and property, and control the public health catastrophe in Maryland, it is necessary to control the occupancy and use of buildings;

WHEREAS,

To avoid the serious health, welfare, and safety consequences that may result if Marylanders lose their rental housing as a result of COVID-19, it is necessary and reasonable to impose a moratorium on certain evictions;

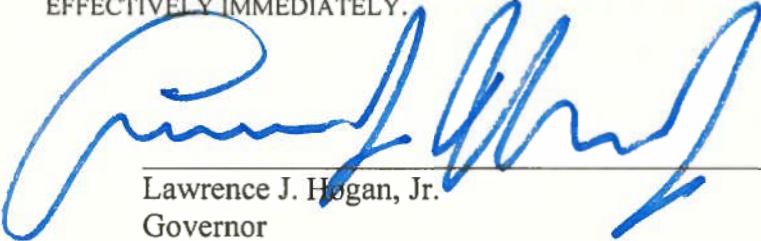

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LAWRENCE J. HOGAN, JR., GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, BY VIRTUE OF THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME BY THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF MARYLAND, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO TITLE 14 OF THE PUBLIC SAFETY ARTICLE, AND IN AN EFFORT TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC HEALTH, WELFARE, AND SAFETY, DO HEREBY ORDER:

- I. Until the state of emergency is terminated and the catastrophic health emergency is rescinded, the effect of Section 8-401 of the Real Property Article of the Maryland Code is hereby suspended as follows:
 - a. No court shall give any judgment for possession or repossession, or warrant for restitution of possession or repossession of residential real property, if the tenant can demonstrate to the court, through documentation or other objectively verifiable means, that the tenant suffered a substantial loss of income resulting from COVID-19 or the related proclamation of a state of emergency and catastrophic health emergency, including, without limitation, due to job loss, reduction in compensated hours of work, closure of place of employment, or the need to miss work to care for a home-bound school-age child.

- II. Until the state of emergency is terminated and the catastrophic health emergency is rescinded, the effect of Section 8-402.1 of the Real Property Article of the Maryland Code is hereby suspended as follows:
 - a. No court shall give any judgment for possession or repossession, or warrant for restitution of possession or repossession of residential real property, if the tenant can demonstrate to the court, through documentation or other objectively verifiable means, that the tenant suffered a substantial loss of income resulting from COVID-19 or the related proclamation of a state of emergency and catastrophic health emergency, including, without limitation, due to job loss, reduction in compensated hours of work, closure of place of employment, or the need to miss work to care for a home-bound school-age child.

- b. The fact that the tenant, or any person permissibly cohabiting with the tenant in accordance with the terms of the lease, has a confirmed diagnosis of COVID-19 or is under investigation for COVID-19, shall not constitute a “clear and imminent danger” for purposes of Section 8-402.1(a)(1)(i)2.A.
- III. Except as specifically suspended in paragraph I above, Section 8-401 of the Real Property Article remains in effect in accordance with its terms. Except as specifically suspended in paragraph II above, Section 8-402.1 of the Real Property Article remains in effect in accordance with its terms.

ISSUED UNDER MY HAND THIS 16TH DAY OF MARCH, 2020, AND EFFECTIVELY IMMEDIATELY.

Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.
Governor
